Dear Researcher(s),

We are pleased to inform you that the Journal of Scientific Enquiry (JSE), an open access, scholarly, peer-reviewed, interdisciplinary and fully refereed journal, published online biannually by the Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University, Purulia, West Bengal, India, is going to launch its first issue within December, 2021. Greatly appreciating the works, you have published before, we ardently invite you to contribute your Research Paper for publication in JSE. We do hope that the papers published in JSE will receive wide publicity and acquire very high reputation with its own domain of DOI and ISSN and also expected to be enlisted in UGC-CARE list of journals. The Journal of Scientific Enquiry encourages paper submissions from researchers and experts related to but not limited to the following subject matters: Physical, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Computer Science, Geo and Environmental Sciences and Behavioral Sciences. It is firmly believed that your participation will help this journal to reach to a higher level in the academic community.

For more details, please visit the website: <https://journal.skbu.ac.in/science/16052021001CEM/Home>.

We publish original research articles and review papers through peer-review process.

The deadline for submitting manuscript for the first issue is 30th September, 2021.

Authors are requested to prepare their manuscript(s) in JSE journal format, by using the JSE paper Template. The manuscripts could be submitted through our own Electronic Submission System (ESS) gateway, however, for the first issue direct submission through the e-mail (jse@skbu.ac.in) would also be allowed.

Manuscript Contribution: You can click the below website to submit your precious paper: https://journal.skbu.ac.in/science/16052021001CEM/Submit Paper

Please, feel free to contact us for any queries at jse@skbu.ac.in or to any of the associate editors. It will be our pleasure to assist you.
