I am happy to congratulate the chief editor and my department of Philosophy, SKBU, on its first journal published. I am excited to read all the articles of esteemed authors. Contemporary Indian Philosophy is the theme of journal this time. The modern Indian thoughts of 19th century of Tagore, Gandhi, Aurobindo, Vivekananda, Radhakrishnan, Iqbal, Ambedkar should have been studied as much as possible for the enlightenment of thought yet to be achieved in our country. The department of Philosophy has traversed the hard times to get its marvels. But this time it is gorgeous to see this journal. It is a tremendous fulfilment. The chief editor and all the faculty have laboured difficult. The patience and resolutions have paid. Our ethics have helped us reach this place. My best wishes for future endeavours.
